Background & Scope

In accordance with the Private Training Act, its regulations and the requirements set out by StudentAid BC, the Canadian College of Technology and Business (CCTB) is committed to protecting its students' interests by creating a policy outlining the refund of the fees paid to the college.

Purpose of the Policy

The purpose of this policy is to outline the guidelines and the process put in place by CCTB for student refunds. This policy applies to all CCTB prospective and current students.

Policy Statements

- 1) All refunds will be returned to the original payor(s) through the method of payment by which the payment(s) were made. Students are strongly advised to remit their payments directly to CCTB using the appropriate payment methods unless they are facilitating their payments through their agency.
- 2) Course materials and textbooks/e-books are provided through Canvas LMS. The institution is considered to have provided the course materials to students once the Canvas LMS account has been activated.
- 3) The institution is not liable for refunding ancillary bank charges imposed to disburse refunds through wire transfer or payment platforms (e.g. PayMyTuition, Stripe, CIBC International Student Pay).
- 4) The amounts of refund eligible and circumstances of withdrawal/discontinuation of studies are outlined below.
